Mapp Intelligence will help you:

Truly understand your customers

Gain a real-time, comprehensive, single customer view within the CDP and discover your customers' wants, needs, and expectations derived from our data intelligence. Ultimately, know what your customers want before they do.

Boost your segmentation capabilities

Build advanced, complex audience segments faster and more accurately using granular, detailed customer data. Activate these segments in both your acquisition and engagement campaigns.

Derive timely, actionable insights

Ditch the assumptions. Glean actionable insights from the data to tell you the who, what, when, where of your future campaign. Discover what the next best message is to send to your customer by leveraging actual brand engagements.

How Mapp Intelligence works:

Match unknown and known customers

Associate anonymous behavior with first-part data to identify unknown prospects browsing your website. By aggregating all this information, you will benefit from a single, real-time view of each customer and will be enabled to build meaningful segments that support highly-personalized marketing campaigns.

Leverage our recommendation engine

Take advantage of Mapp's extensive database of user information through our recommendation engine. The machine learning pipeline draws from millions of data points allowing you to predict which audience segments are most likely to convert – taking the guesswork out of marketing.

Receive cross-channel analytics & insights

Use cross-channel reports to uncover your best performing channels and messages. Go beyond just analyzing your campaigns by getting suggestions on how to improve them. Our unparalleled natural-language processing provides subject line optimization and keyword recommendations, specifically to enhance your email marketing efforts.
